HEXEL Works Supports the Second Soroptimist International Manila Diamond Golf Tournament

HEXEL Works Inc. (Head Office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; President: Takayuki Sakamoto) is pleased to announce its sponsorship of the Second Soroptimist International Manila Diamond Golf Tournament, to be held on Friday, November 14, 2025, in the Philippines.

The tournament is organized by Soroptimist International Manila Diamond, a chapter of the global volunteer organization Soroptimist International, founded in California, USA, in 1921, and holds consultative status with the United Nations. Today, Soroptimist International operates in 118 countries, promoting the empowerment and advancement of women and girls through initiatives that improve the quality of life and expand educational opportunities.

HEXEL Works has supported the Soroptimist International Manila Diamond Golf Tournament since its inaugural event, contributing to activities that raise awareness of social issues through sports. HEXEL Works will continue to support sports, cultural, and artistic initiatives in line with its corporate brand values.
